

East West is happy to announce that Eric Walz has been promoted to General Manager of St. James Place. Although the formal date for the East West transition at St. James Place is July 1st, Eric will begin to support the transition during the month of June.

Eric started working for East West twelve (12) years ago, straight out of college. He has extensive hospitality and association management experience at properties including the Hyatt Mountain Lodge, Oxford Court and most recently, six (6) associations in Vail as the leader and General Manager of Vail Mountain Lodging. Eric's excellence was acknowledged in 2021, as he was a recipient of East West Hospitality's Bowker Award. We look forward to his exceptional leadership at St. James Place.
